

WORKSHOP

Session 1 Friday @ 1:15 pm

Recovered Addicts, Uncovered Ministry

Robert Radcliff

Hear how Robert and Riverside Friends Church have engaged in effective recovery ministry. Come and see the five focus points for recovery ministry based on Robert's research for his capstone Master's project "Recovered Addicts, Uncovered Ministry: What Sobriety Stories have to Say on Recovery Ministry"

Navigating our Digital World

Kaleo Staff

Do you feel like your kids or grandkids are drowning in a sea of new questions, apps, and devices? Want to talk about digital media more with young people, but aren't sure how? In this workshop we will offer some tools and framework to help adults think and talk differently about digital media and navigate these ever-changing waters.

Living Letters to Tanzania

Kelly Kellum

The Living Letters Program is a new approach Friends United Meeting is taking to how we look at mission travel and service. In 2 Corinthians 3:3, the Apostle Paul writes, "You are a letter from Christ, the result of our ministry, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts."

Through this program Nicholas and Dorcas Otieno have been named as Living Letter Missionaries, sent from Kenyan Friends to serve in Tanzania Yearly Meeting. They are doing evangelistic activities such as church planting and traveling in ministry, visiting Friends, and providing ministries of support, education, and encouragement.

Remaining Relevant in a Changing World

Part 1

Dr. Kay Wilson

This workshop will be offered 2 parts!

In a world turned upside down, how does the church remain relevant and speak Love and Truth in a disillusioned and divided culture?

Session 2 Friday @ 3:00 pm

Living and Giving and Saving in Turbulent Times

Lyle Miller from Everence

Living and Giving and Saving in Turbulent Times: Uncertainty in the markets and in our personal lives, including in our finances, can contribute to anxiety. In this session, we'll consider some principles that contribute to financial wellness and to our ability to live and give with open hands as we integrate our faith walk with our financial journey as servants of Jesus.

Worship Arts: How Preparation and Planning Can Support Spirit Inspired Worship

Jared Harvey – Worship Ministry

Sometimes when our resources are low and our volunteer list is short, we can settle for less than our best when planning and leading worship. But regardless of size or ability level, when we approach worship from a space of preparation, with clear goals in mind, the results can be surprising. Join Jared Harvey, Worship Arts Director of Northridge Friends Church (Wichita, KS) as he shares some insights, experiences, and processes for getting the most out of what you have in your worship ministries.

The Nations Have Come to Us: Cross-Cultural Ministry at Home

Nathan Martin

Missions, traditionally speaking, is about the ministry the church does cross-culturally. Our kingdom focus includes all nations. We will consider current global trends in missions and the amazing opportunity of diaspora work in our midst. The nations are coming to Iowa. We will also reflect on the challenges and blessings of seeking to minister and serve cross culturally.

Remaining Relevant in a Changing World

Part 2

Dr. Kay Wilson

In a world turned upside down, how does the church remain relevant and speak Love and Truth in a disillusioned and divided culture?